Aquarium	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes								CANN	CUNC102C	CE059			1/01/1929	This square Aquarium cloth with a scalloped border has a square linen centre. Ships, seagulls & a lighthouse are along the sides above a variety of shells, crabs, coral & starfish. More birds are at the corners. Small fish are along the outer border. It was called the Seaside cloth in America.
American flag	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat		BB2002					CUNC001						This rectangular panel has the American flag & the text To keep me flying, fight for me, work for me . CUNC001 is the preferred source as the redrawn graph in the 2002 book may not be accurate.
American legion	Home	Panel	Yes	Emb		BB2002									MUNC	1/11/1923	This square design has a 5-pointed star surrounded by laurel leaves, the emblem of the American Legion , an American war veterans organization.
Anemone	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes			BB2009b					CANN	CUNC13	CE061				This rectangular cloth has a gently-scalloped border of sprays of anemones with butterflies. The insertion is a narrow geometric design. This design was also suggested for a bedspread.
ANZAC & wattle	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat	BA4,38	BB2002							MAEJ	6/03/1916			This tall rectangular panel has a soldier with a rifle surrounded by wattle. The text at the bottom reads ANZAC 1915 . Mary suggested that it be used as a cover for a book or cushion.
Apple blossom & poppies	Home	Bedspread, border	Yes					CAG14			CUNC100C				MUNC	1/02/1926	A long panel with rounded ends is on the bottom edge of the linen of this bedspread & on the middle of the sides between short panels. Birds on an apple blossom branch are surrounded by poppies. Both the centre & border are given in CAG14, titled Border & centre motif for bedspread , which has not been seen. A graph for the centre was redrawn & is in BB2009a. The written instructions in MUNC 1/02/1926 are the only source of the borders in this digitized collection.
Apple blossom & poppies	Home	Bedspread, centre	Yes			BB2009a		CAG14			CUNC100C				MUNC	1/01/1926	This oblong centre with curved indented corners has birds on apple blossom branches surrounded by poppies. Both the centre & border are in CAG14, titled Border and centre motif for bedspread which has not been seen. The graph in the B2009a reprint was based on the written instructions in MUNC 1/01/1926, with amendments made from the illustration when errors were found.

Arabesque 2	Home	Traycloth insertions	Yes		BA4,37						CUNC010		MANI	8/01/1932			This particularly large traycloth has an arabesque lace square in the centre, surrounded by a linen frame then a lace frame in a square of linen.
Arabesque 3	Home	Centrepiece & doyleys	Yes			BB2020					CUNC010						The outside of this unusual 6-sided centrepiece has many points, some sharp, others blunt. It consists of 6-pointed stars which are repeated in the arabesque manner to form an interconnected design. The space in between the stars is filled with a scorpion-like figure in a lacet ground. The stars have 2 blunt points & 4 sharp ones. They are made of 2 interwoven triangles with wide bands, one with open squares and the other with small crosses. The large- & medium-sized almost circular doyleys have the same general design with one hexagon only & the small tumbler doyley has only a geometric motif.
Australian animals & birds*	Home	Bedspread	Yes	Aus	BA1,68	BB2002							MAEJ	6/12/1913			The layout of this remarkable bedspread is in BA1,68 as well as in MAEJ 6/12/1913. It is rectangular with many scallops around the edge of the cockatoo border. The hexagonal linen centre is surrounded by a frame made of corners with an emu, kangaroo, kookaburra & swan, joined by iguanas on the long side & a magpie on the short side. A rectangular lyrebird insertion is below. The details for the animal & bird designs are given under their individual names. The pattern for a possum given in the MAEJ article was replaced by one for a kookaburra in BA1.
Australian coat-of-arms	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat	BA2,26	BB2002							MAEJ	6/10/1915			This hexagonal panel called Commonwealth coat-of-arms has a kangaroo & an emu facing each other across a shield with the emblems of the 6 Australian states. The banner below has the text Australia .
Australian flag	Home	Panel	Yes			BB2002							MAEJ	6/03/1918			This rectangular panel with the Australian flag has the text To keep me flying, fight for me, work for me beneath it. The background of open lacets arranged alternately stretches, somewhat spoiling the effect.

Bell-flower	Home	Chairback	Yes			BB2020											This chairback design, Conventional bell-flower chairback which appeared in Olde Time Needlework December - January 1980, (pp. 6,7 & 43) without any details of its source was said to be a Mary Card design. Sprays of flowers are arranged around & enclosed by bars of vertically-stacked single open lacets bordered by rows of blocks.
Bird & nest	Home	Runner	Yes		BA7,03	BB2009a							MAEJ	6/09/1925	MUNC	1/05/1923	This end of this runner with 5 tassels has descending scallops both on the lower border & where the lace is attached to the linen. Two birds facing each other on a branch are surrounded by leaves. It is similar to the Bird-on-the nest chairback in MAHB 1/03/1937 but has solid leaves & lacks the canework at the top. Also in MANI 6/03/1931.
Bird-on-the-nest	Home	Chairback	Yes			BB2009a							MAHB	1/03/1937			The lower border of this chairback called Bird-on-the-nest design has descending scallops. Two birds facing each other on a branch are surrounded by leaves. It is similar to the Bird & nest runner in MAEJ 6/09/1925 & BA7,03 but has open leaves & a large area of canework at the top.
Birds	Home	Scarf end	Yes	Aus		BB2009a	BU1,11						MAEJ	6/05/1924	MUNC	1/11/1919	The lace edge next to the linen on this scarf-end is straight, with sloping sides & two symmetrical scallops of lace below. Two parrots on a branch facing each other & set in canework are surrounded by clematis leaves. Seven tassels hang from the lower border.
Blue bells & cockatoo	Home	Luncheon set	Yes			BB2009a											This was included here because the American magazine Olde Time Needlework reprinted it as a Mary Card design in the Winter 1980 issue. The original source of the centerpiece is not known. The patterns for the small doyleys were issued anonymously along with a matching tablecloth border in a Supplement to Weldon's Practical Needlework, New Series , No 134, date unknown. As indicated in Ballantyne 2002, p. 31, there are indications that Weldon's published some of Mary's designs without giving her name as the designer. Weldon's very rarely gave the names of their designers.

Grapevine & silver eye	Home	Mat	Yes		BA8,32								MAHB	1/04/1933			This Grapevine & silver eye mat or doyley is circular with 8 gentle scallops. Grape leaves & berries in a canework background surround a circle of spaces with a bird pecking at the fruit. The outer border is of individual grape berries.
Grapevine & silver eye	Home	Runner									CUMP				MUMP	1/08/1925	Modern Priscilla gave an illustration & the address for obtaining the pattern of this Grapevine & silver eye runner. This can be seen in the digital collection. No graph or directions for working have been found. A simple technique for joining the pieces of crochet, working over thread is shown in the magazine
Grapevine & silver eye	Home	Tablecloth, major, round	Yes						CANB4		CUMP				MUMP	1/10/1924	This round cloth is made in 9 pieces which are worked separately then joined invisibly with a few simple rows worked between them. A bird is flying among the grape leaves & berries. The border is of leaves & fruit in a canework background. Mary designed a matching doyley/mat & runner although the runner only appeared as an illustration in Modern Priscilla and no pattern has been found. The edge of the American cloth is slightly different, with the single berries on the outer edge being in canework instead of small squares as in the Australian New Big Chart CANB4
Great seal of the USA	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat							CUNC007				MUNC	1/03/1918	This rectangular panel with rounded corners is an accurate rendition of the Great Seal of the United States which is used to authenticate certain documents issued by its Federal government. The bald eagle in the centre is surrounded by a scroll inccribed with the motto E Pluribus Unum . The eagle grasps an olive branch in its right talon & a bundle of 13 arrows in its left. A shield is below the eagle. A cloud above the eagle's head contains 13 stars.

Japanese teagarden	Home	Tablecloth, major, round	Yes								CUNC012	CE054					Even though this was called a centrepiece it appeared large enough to be a tablecloth. Each of the 4 repeats has 2 women in Japanese costume facing each other. One carries a fan, as in the matching Little Japs centrepiece in MAEJ 6/08/1928 & MUNC 1/02/1923. Alongside is a water scene with birds, vegetation, a temple & figures in boats. The circular crochet lace centre has more than 30 dragonflies. It was one of 2 tablecloths which Mary designed without a linen centre. It is worked horizontally. A matching oval centrepiece is in MAEJ 1/08/1928 and MUNC 1/02/1923.
Jasmine	Home	Doyley set	Yes	Aus		BB2009b						CE057	MAEJ	1/10/1926	MUNC	1/08/1928	This Jasmine set includes rectangular & square mats. MAEJ 6/10/1926 gave only the graph for the small mat. The graph for the large mat was drawn from an illustration in a catalogue & was included in the modern reprint book of flower patterns issued in BB2009b.
Kangaroo*	Home	Bedsread, corner	Yes	Aus	BA1,64	BB2002 BB2009a							MAEJ	6/12/1913			Because it is on a corner, this kangaroo is on the bias.
Kookaburra	Home	Bedsread, corner	Yes	Aus	BA1,63	BB2002 BB2009a											This kookaburra was not in the original pattern for the Australian bedspread in MAEJ. It is given in BA1 where it replaced the possum. Because it is on a corner, this design is on the bias.
Kookaburra	Home	Jug cover	Yes	Aus	BA4,32	BB2009a											This circular jug cover with a cat has a narrow circle of blocks just in from the outer edge.
Lily	Home	Curtain insertion	Yes		BA4,15		BU1,06										This straight-sided insertion has stylised lilies alternating with bars having 3 petals at top & bottom. BA4,15 also includes a corner.
Lily	Home	Doyley set	Yes		BA7,24								MANI	17/04/1931	MUNC	1/01/1928	Both the oval & circular doyleys of this set have a gently scalloped edge. Sprays of lilies in an open lacet background surround centres of spaces. These lilies are more open than the tubular Madonna lilies used in some of Mary's other lily designs.
Lily	Home	Runner set	Yes									CE084					This appealing set is a long rectangular runner with rectangular & square mats, all having rounded corners & gentle scallops. The runner has many upright lily sprays & a long curve in a geometric design including open lacets below. The matching mats are simpler versions of the runner.
Lily	Home	Tea cosy cover	Yes		BA7,25								MAEJ	6/09/1926			This is worked from half of the oval doyley graph from the Lily doyley set in BA7,24 so is a little taller than the usual teacosy cover.

Primrose	Home	Tablecloth, border											MAHB	1/02/1932	MUNC	1/10/1929	This Primrose cloth has lace squares at the corners joined by narrower slightly curved rectangular strips at the sides. The linen centre is a square indented at the corners. MAHB 1/02/1932 pp. 30 - 1.
Rambler rose	Home	Traycloth	Yes			BB2004						CE083	MAHB	1/10/1936			This rectangular traycloth has canework in the dumb-bell-shaped centre & border. Sprays of roses twine around the corners. It was called the Rambler rose design in MAHB 1/10/1936 but known as the Pansy design in CE083.
Red cross	Home	Doyley	Yes	Nat	BA4,33								MAEJ	6/06/1914	MUNC	1/04/1918	Four heart-shaped pieces of lace with tiny crosses are mounted on the tabs of a square cross of linen. The MAEJ pattern was promoted to be sold at fetes to raise funds for the wartime activities of the Red Cross. It included a lesson in adding blocks at the end of a row, using an extended treble.
Rose	Apparel	Apron	Yes		BA6,25								MANI	13/03/1931			This muslin apron covers only the waist & hips. The narrow rose border has two peaks at the lower edge.
Rose	Home	Insertion											MAEJ	1/01/1927			This floral insertion strip, which appears to depict a rose, does not match any of Mary's other rose designs..
Rose	Apparel	Petticoat	Yes		BA6,26												This was not a Mary Card design, but was supplied by M.H., probably to complete the book. It was called a Princess petticoat lace & was included here only because it appeared in BA6.
Rose	Home	Runner	Yes			BB2020						CE082	MAHB	1/05/1935			This runner is a long oblong with rounded corners. The almost solid border surrounds sprays of roses at the ends. The centre of spaces is surrounded by another almost solid band & mimics a linen centre. CE082 includes both a long runner & a shorter version as a traycloth.
Rose	Home	Traycloth	Yes			BB2020						CE082					The traycloth was worked from a shortened version of the graph for the Rose runner presented in CE082.
Rose & ribbon	Apparel	Camisole top	Yes		BA6,19												This camisole top in a Rose & ribbon design has a square neck, a peak at the front & over the shoulders. It is different to Mary's usual work.
Rose & rosebud	Home	Tablecloth, insertion & medallion	Yes		BA2,20			CAG07	CAN02	CANN	CUNC004	CE053	MAEJ	6/04/1915			This insertion matches the tablecloth border in MAEJ 6/02/1915 as does the medallion with a rose spray surrounded by a solid circular ring. MAEJ 6/04/1915 also includes a lesson in increasing at the ends & beginnings of rows. It also appeared in BASemco,09.

Rose & rosebud	Home	Tablecloth, border	Yes		BA2,20			CAG07	CAN02	CANN	CUNC004	CE053	MAEJ	6/02/1915			A long spray with an open rose, rosebuds & leaves winds gracefully around a bar of lacets in such a way that leaves & roses appear in alternating scallops. When combined with the matching insertion & medallion or the triangle in this Rose & rosebud design, an elaborate tablecloth or a bedspread may be made. This design was included in all categories of charts so refer to the separate entries under Rose & rosebud border, triangle, insertion and medallion. It was also included in BASemco,09. The triangle is only in BA2, 23.
Rose & rosebud	Home	Tablecloth, triangle	Yes		BA2,23			CAG07	CAN02	CANN	CUNC004	CE053					A wreath of a rose, rosebuds & leaves is in the right angle corner of this triangle. A bow with long trailing ribbons & sprays of rosebuds is along the diagonal side. This matches the other Rose & rosebud designs of a border, an insertion & medallion given in many charts listed in this entry.
Rose, thistle & shamrock	Home	Tablecloth, border & insertion	Yes		BA4,40	BB2002											A rose, thistle & shamrock are each set in separate ovals of lacets which alternate with a bar & scrolls in the scallops of the border. Also in BASemco,12.
Rosebud	Home	Doyley set, octagonal	Yes			BB2004							MAEJ	6/12/1924			These 3 8-sided doyleys have a small central square of canework surrounded by rosebuds & leaves in a square. Extra shaped rows form the octagon. They match the rosebud traycloth design in MAEJ 6/02/1925.
Rosebud	Home	Traycloth	Yes										MAEJ	6/02/1925			This rectangular traycloth has a scalloped border with sprays of rosebuds & leaves winding around a bar of canework. It matches the 8-sided set of rose doyleys in MAEJ 6/12/1924 & BB2004.
Sailor	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat							CUNC007		MAEJ	6/10/1918			This was produced on request to match the soldier design
Seagull	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes									CE090					This square cloth has seagulls, a sailing ship & a steam ship, surrounded by a border of a variety of shells and seaweed.
Seven-point	Home	Doyley	Yes		BA5,12								MAEJ	6/11/1917	MUNC	1/08/1918	A long narrow strip is worked & joined to make a circular wreath on the bias with a few rows crocheted around the inner border. The 7 points each have a curved horizontal bar joined to a vertical bar with a rarely-seen lacet filling. Also in MANI 4/10/1929.
Shamrock	Home	Border, narrow	Yes												MUNC	1/05/1933	This straight-edged narrow border with groups of 3 leaves with straight short stems was published only in the USA where it was called the Shamrock design. It does not match other shamrock or trefoil designs.

Shamrock	Home	Chairset	Yes												MUNC	1/11/1930	The chairback is short & wide with one curved end. The arm cover is long & thin, also with one curved end. It was called a Shamrock design.
Shriners	Home	Panel	Yes	Emb											MUNC	1/12/1924	A square design with a scimitar above a crescent, a sphinx & a 5-pointed star. Shriners International is an American fraternity based on fun, fellowship & the Masonic principles of brotherly love, relief & truth.
Snake	Home	Jug cover	Yes		BA4,32												This circular jug cover with a snake has a narrow circle of blocks just in from the outer edge.
Snowdrop	Home	Basket, cake											MAEJ	6/05/1918	MUNC	1/06/1918	Four pieces with sloping sides with a small snowdrop design are worked separately, then joined to form a sloping-sided cake basket. MAEJ p. 337.
Soldier	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat							CUNC001						The soldier is very similar to that in the ANZAC & wattle design.
Springtime	Home	Doyley set, oval	Yes			BB2002							MAEJ	1/06/1929	MUNC	1/05/1925	Two cherubs are playing with a streamer in this oval doyley which is part of the Springtime set. The matching round doyley is in BB2002, MUNC 1/05/1925 & MAEJ 6/07/1929.
Springtime	Home	Doyley set, round	Yes			BB2002							MAEJ	6/07/1929	MUNC	1/05/1925	This round doyley which has a cherub sitting under a tree matches the oval Springtime doyley in BB2002, MAEJ 1/06/1929 & MUNC 1/05/1925.
St George & Dragon	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat	BA4,26		BU1,17										This imposing square panel has St George & the dragon on a prancing horse surrounded by canework. The graph in BU,17 is undivided, whereas that in BA4,26 was across the centre fold so is less clear.
Star	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes				BU1,10						MAEJ	6/07/1917			This yoke in a star pattern with a front opening is square except for the diagonal lower front corners.
Statue of Liberty	Home	Panel	Yes	Nat		BB2002									MUNC	1/09/1919	This tall, thin, rectangular panel features the Statue of Liberty , a woman in long robes, raised high on a platform, holding a burning torch. The text reads Liberty for all. Because MUNC 1/09/1919 did not provide a graph & the one available by mail order at the time it was published has not been seen, one was drawn from the illustration & included in BB2002.

stylised & leaves	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes		BA6,18								MAEJ	6/04/1921	MUNC	1/05/1920	This yoke with 5-lobed stylised leaves has a square neck & straight front except for a small peak. The short fabric sleeves are trimmed with lace worked in a similar pattern to the inner border of the neck. A simpler design without the lace for the sleeves & the front peak is in BA4,15.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Baby bonnet	Yes		BA6,25								MAEJ	6/10/1922			Only the graphs for the sides & back of this baby's bonnet are given. An illustration is hardly necessary.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Baby set	Yes												MUNC	1/06/1921	This baby's fabric jacket, bonnet & bib with narrow crochet trimmings appeared on the cover of MUNC 1/06/1921.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Boudoir cap	Yes		BA6,14										MUNC	1/01/1921	This boudoir cap is made of velvet ribbon 5 cm wide plus an almost square piece of crochet with ovals of swirled flowers & leaves on each corner. The matching nightgown yoke is in BA6,23.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Boudoir cap	Yes		BA6,12												The basic cap of fabric has a round medallion with stylised flowers & swirled leaves at the sides plus a brim of the same pattern at the front.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Camisole top	Yes				BU1,26	CAG09a								MUNC	1/04/1919	This sleeveless floral camisole top is straight-sided with an opening at centre front. One version was worked with a background of spaces & another with open lacets arranged vertically.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Camisole top	Yes		BA6,20												This camisole top has narrow straps over the shoulders & a square neck. The front band with swirled simple flowers & leaves has a slight peak.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Child's collar	Yes		BA4,23						CUNC009		MAEJ	6/09/1923			A scalloped edge with lacets surrounds sprays of small simple stylised flowers in this child's collar.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Coat	Yes		BA6,16												This long-sleeved hip-length coat has a collar & oval neck. The body of the coat is filet crochet with occasional flowers & single blocks in the background. It is trimmed with small stylised flowers & a geometric border. It was called a coat-sweater.
stylised flowers	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes		BA6,14										MUNC	1/11/1920	This yoke has a round neck with ovals of swirled flowers & leaves at the front & over the shoulders. The lace joining these has open squares diagonally placed. Peaked cuffs are on the three quarter length sleeves. The matching boudoir cap is in BA6,14.

stylised flowers	Home	Runner										CE500	MAEJ	1/07/1927			The flowers alternate with hexagons of lacets in strips with pointed ends. These are decorated with half flowers worked in loops covered with double crochet stitches on the edge of the filet. The insertions at each end of the runner are V-shaped. It was called the Stella insertion in CE500.
stylised flowers	Home	Tablecloth, border & triangle	Yes		BA4,43	BB2009b							MAEJ	6/06/1924			This Afternoon tea cloth includes a border & triangle. The pattern for the border in BA4 was too short to be used with the 4 triangles shown. The amended pattern in B2009b with 2 additional rows for each pattern gives enough stitches for this to be done. MAEJ 6/10/1928 provides only the border which is suggested for a traycloth.
stylised flowers	Home	Tablecloth, insertion	Yes		BA7,20								MANI	21/08/1931	MUNC	1/02/1926	Called Graceful insertion, this tablecloth has stylised flowers with an filling of open lacets arranged vertically on meandering stems, along with partly open buds. The small, almost triangular insertion is of a partly opened bud.
stylised flowers & leaves	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes		BA6,06												This modern design on the cover of BA6 was only issued once. Sleeves extend outwards from the oval neck. An unusual feature of 4 curved leaves radiating out from the sides of a diagonal square of canework formed the centre front & is repeated on the sleeves.
stylised leaves	Home	Nightgown yoke	Yes		BA4,15												This almost square yoke with groups of stylised 5-lobed leaves on a meandering stem is a simpler version of the nightgown yoke in BA6,18. In addition it has lace to trim the sleeves & a peak at the front. It was also suggested for a traycloth.
Supplejack	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes	Aus	BA4,26	BB2009b											This large yoke with supplejack flowers & leaves has a round neck & extended sleeves.
Supplejack	Home	Tablecloth, insertion	Yes	Aus	BA1,54	BB2002							MAEJ	6/08/1912			This small insertion of the supplejack vine features a meandering design of leaves & small flowers. It was Mary's first filet crochet design. MAEJ 6/08/1912 includes a lesson on the basics of filet crochet structure & design, including a simple corner.
Swallows & clouds	Home	Towel end	Yes		BA2,07								MAEJ	5/07/1924			This insertion of flying swallows & clouds has straight edges. It also appears in BASemco,03 & MANI 13/03/1931.
Swallows & flowers	Home	Tablecloth, border											MAEJ	1/06/1927			Flying swallows & floral sprays alternate in the scallops of this border. MAEJ p. 522.
Swan	Home	Jug cover	Yes		BA4,32	BB2002 BB2009a							MANI	20/03/1931			This circular jug cover with a swan has a narrow circle of blocks just in from the outer edge.

Swan & iris	Home	Bedsread, centre & panel	Yes		BA8,08	BB2009a					CUNC109C	CE066					This bedspread has a central lace square of swans, irises & a dead tree in water, along with other birds overhead & irises in the corners. A long panel with swans in water between groups of irises is inserted along the sides of fabric & on the part covering the pillow where it is surrounded by a frame with curved sprays of irises. The lower edges of the sides are trimmed with long strips which also have curved sprays of irises. The central square was not included in BA8,08.
Swan*	Home	Bedsread, corner	Yes	Aus	BA1,65	BB2002 BB2009a							MAEJ	6/12/1913			Because it is a corner, this swan is on the bias.
Swirls	Home	Doyley	Yes				BU1,04						MAEJ	6/03/1921	MUNC	1/10/1919	This is shown as an almost square doyley with a swirled design on a linen circle. It is crocheted in a complicated way & Mary called it a Conventional border which could be made in any length. Also in MAEJ 1/03/1928.
Tea tree	Home	Doyley	Yes			BB2009b						CE087	MAHB	1/04/1939			This small scalloped Tea-tree doyley has sprays of flowers & leaves swirling out from the centre. It was known as the Mayflower doyley in England.
Teaset	Home	Tablecloth, insertion											MAEJ	1/04/1927			This chunky design has a square outer border which is wider in the middle one third of the length. This wider section has a tea pot enclosed in an elaborate frame & the tea cups, sugar bowl & milk jug are arranged around it. Even though this is called an insertion it is mounted on the outer edge of a linen square with indents for the deeper parts of the lace. The stylised corner is similar to the centrepiece & mats in CE85 (a fruit design) in having 2 solid curves radiating out from the corner. Two other curves of mostly square dots also radiate from the corners.
Tecoma	Home	Tablecloth, insertions	Yes		BA4,18		BU1,06						MAEJ	6/07/1917			The floral squares at the corners are joined with rectangular insertions. Also in MAEJ 6/05/1920.
Thistle	Apparel	Camisole top	Yes		BA6,21								MAEJ	6/04/1925			This camisole top in a Conventional thistle design has straps over the shoulders joining into a straight band across the front.
Thistle	Home	Doyley	Yes			BB2009b					CE500						This round doyley has thistles in a lacet background in the centre & curved leaves in the border.
Thistle	Home	Tablecloth, border & insertion	Yes		BA4,16	BB2009b		CAG9b							MUNC	1/04/1921	The border is gently scalloped with a thistle spray surrounded below by a checkerboard pattern. The matching insertion in BA4 also has a similar surround.

Trefoil	Home	Bedsread, insertion											MAEJ	6/09/1924	MUNC	1/05/1924	This simple bedsread is made of many narrow strips of trefoils on curved stems set in linen. MAEJ pp. 672 - 3.
Trefoil	Apparel	Camisole top	Yes		BA2,09												This simple trefoil camisole top has a square neck & straight sides.
Trefoil	Home	Insertion											MAEJ	6/11/1912			This basic design of an insertion with single trefoils on short stems was combined with a long rectangular lyrebird insertion used in a cushion cover.
Trefoil	Home	Insertion	Yes		BA4,13												This insertion has single trefoils on curved stems.
Trefoil	Home	Tablecloth, border	Yes		BA1,46								MAEJ	6/11/1913			The relatively narrow border has groups of 3 trefoils on short curved stems. The complete design was in BA2,12 and the matching triangle was issued in MAEJ 6/05/1925.
Trefoil	Home	Tablecloth, border & triangle	Yes		BA2,12								MAEJ	6/05/1925			This relatively narrow scalloped border has groups of 3 trefoils on short curved stems. The triangle has one group of three trefoils on short stems & others on longer curved stems. Also in MANI 27/11/1931.
Trefoil	Home	Traycloth	Yes		BA4,29				CAN03				MAEJ	1/03/1929	MUNC	1/07/1920	This trefoil insertion is in the form of an oval frame. Mary also suggested in MUNC that half of the design be used as a a nightgown yoke.
Trellis	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes			BB2009a				CANN		CE089					This Trellis cloth which is mostly square with a curved peak on each side is mounted on a 6-sided linen centre. Lilies & butterflies are in the peaks; other flowers, creepers & birds on a trellis fill the corners. Blocks of geometric designs form the border.
Tulip	Home	Tablecloth, insertion	Yes			BB2009b		CAG18	CAN03						MUNC	1/06/1925	This deep straight-edged border for a tablecloth includes snails among the tulips. Lattice with lacets forms the corner.1929.
Victorian centenary	Home	Runner	Yes	Aus		BB2020			CANB5								This long rectangle has a horseman carrying a flag above the text 1934 Victorian Centenary at the lower centre. The wattle tree at the top centre has birds resembling parrots in the branches. On the left side a sailing ship, kangaroos, an indigenous person with a boomerang, an emu, flowers & leaves represent the first settlement. On the right a steam ship, a biplane & tall buildings with wheat, grapes & sheep below show the changes which have occurred over the years. The borders on the short sides have a kookaburra & a lyrebird. This may be converted into an All-Australian runner by substituting the coat-of-arms & the words Advance Australia for the Victorian emblem with the horseman at the centre.

Vine & peacock	Home	Bedsread, border	Yes					CAG03			CUNC003						The vine oblong at the top & bottom of this bedsread includes grape leaves, berries & tendrils. The squares which are used for the remainder of the border have a front view of the peacock surrounded by the fully extended tail & a geometric design for the outer border, which has a peacock on a balustrade under a grapevine with many leaves, berries & tendrils. The squares & oblongs are joined with several rows of unusual crocheted lace. An inner border of linen squares with a central matching geometric design surrounds a linen frame with the large rectangular centre given in CAG02.
Waratah	Home	Tablecloth, border	Yes	Aus	BA1,50	BB2009b		CAG08			CUNC006		MAEJ	6/08/1922			This tablecloth border has peaks on each unit of a waratah flower & leaves set in canework.
Waratah	Home	Tablecloth, border & triangle	Yes	Aus	BA2,04	BB2009b		CAG08			CUNC006						The border of this tablecloth has peaks on each repeated unit of a waratah flower & leaves set in canework. The triangle has 3 sprays of waratahs set in an area of canework outlined by a meandering line & surrounded by open spaces.
Wild rose	Apparel	Nightgown yoke	Yes										MAEJ	1/10/1924	MUNC	1/04/1923	This yoke has a V-neck with roses & a ribbon bow design, slightly curved lower edge & a border for the sleeves.
Wild rose & pigeon	Home	Chairset	Yes			BB2004					CUNC111C				MUNC	1/01/1933	The chairback of this set is short & wide with a curved lower border & tassels. The arm cover is long & thin. Both have scalloped edges which include lacets. This matches other Wild rose & pigeon designs.
Wild rose & pigeon	Home	Doyley set	Yes			BB2004		CAG12							MUNC	1/03/1922	These 3 small circular scalloped doyleys match other Wild rose & pigeon designs.
Wild rose & pigeon	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes					CAG01		CANN	CUNC002	CE058					This scalloped square of lace on a linen circle with pigeons flying among wild roses, in a flowing wrap-around format with limited repetition, was Mary's first revolutionary design for a tablecloth. Other matching Wild rose & pigeon designs include a smaller tablecloth without a linen centre, a traycloth, a teacosy cover, a doyley set & a chairset.
Wild rose & pigeon	Home	Tablecloth, major	Yes					CAG12							MUNC	1/04/1924	This cloth is in the Wild rose & pigeon series with pigeons flying among wild roses. It is a slightly smaller tablecloth which Mary called a centrepiece & did not have a linen centre. It is worked in the round.
Wild rose & pigeon	Home	Teacosy cover	Yes			BB2002						CE074	MAHB	1/05/1936			This is slightly taller than most teacosy covers. It has sprays of wild roses & a pigeon as have other Wild rose & pigeon items.
